Building trust every day

Seamless operations. Every detail. Every flight.

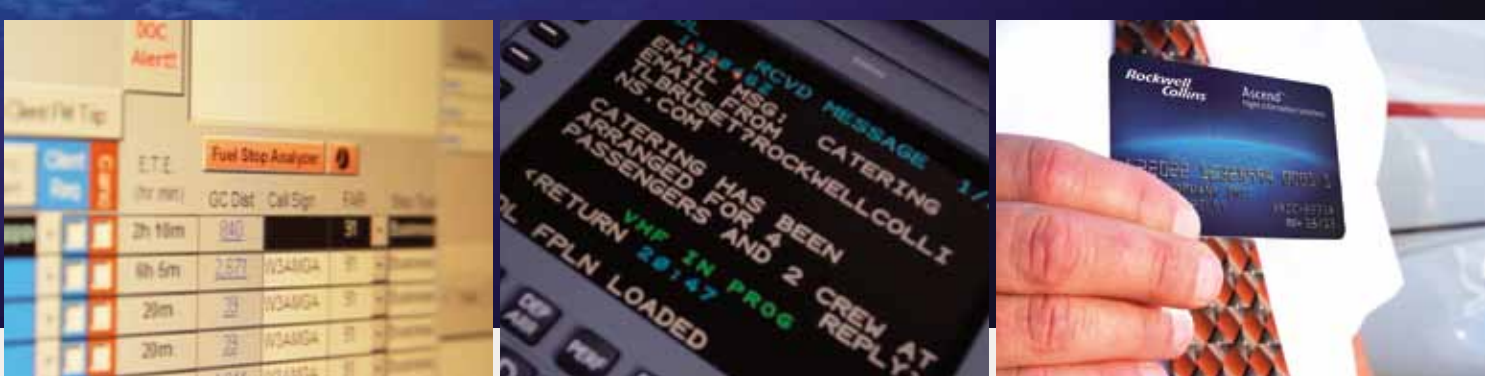

In today's world, it takes a lot of information gathering, planning and coordination to complete even a short flight. Ascend™ Regional Trip Support from Rockwell Collins gives you access to all the tools and data you need to streamline the entire pre- to post-flight process.

Our Regional Trip Support is a unique support service that combines online flight planning, datalink communications and essential flight-planning tools, accessible anytime, anywhere.

Through each phase of flight, Ascend Regional Trip Support maximizes your travel planning and investment with a single, trusted resource for enhanced flight support, including:

- > Flight Manager™ – A web-based customer interface portal that provides you with secure access to a variety of trip planning tools, certified weather resources, billing statements, aircraft communications and exclusive products, such as Fuel Stop Analyzer, online international trip quotes and more.
- > Datalink – Air-to-ground communications and message management.
- > Online flight planning – Technical suite of built-in flight planning solutions.
- > Dedicated Flight Watch – Schedules are forwarded to the NBAA General AviationDesk and FAA to become CDM Participants, minimizing delays and congestion in the National Airspace System.

- > Runway Analysis – Determines maximum allowable take-off and landing gross weights based on aircraft and engine combinations and the airport and runway characteristics.
- > GPS RAIM Prediction – Provides an integrated preflight report with terminal, en-route and approach outages.
- > Ascend Weather Website – Offers an efficient tool for accessing global aviation weather information and is Qualified Internet Communications Provider certified.
- > Fuel Stop Analyzer – A pre-trip planning service that provides fuel stop options and historical flight data for greater flight cost efficiency.
- > Trip Quotes – Gives your flight department a fast, comprehensive trip quote to make flight planning easier.

The regional and international combination

Regional Trip Support enables complete, seamless regional trip planning in conjunction with your international flight planning needs.

Full-service support options

Take advantage of our Dedicated Flight Watch, which provides personalized expert support for your regional trips.

Choose from two bundled plans

Simple Plan – A comprehensive flight planning package that includes a suite of online self-service tools.

One Plan – An all-inclusive, comprehensive flight planning and service package that includes a suite of online self-service tools and Regional Trip Support live operational support, Dedicated Flight Watch and Trip Quotes.

One bill. No surprises.

With our one-source, transparent Regional Trip Support billing system, your organization will now enjoy the efficiency of a single statement for multiple services, without any hidden surcharges.
